

Yes, I support eliminating morse code as a major requirement for license classes with HF privileges. I fully agree with this petition to include morse code only as part of the examination, passing it will give you a corresponding point score to be added with the result of the written exams to bring the total to 100 points. Examiness who fail in morse code but has enough points from the written exams to pass shall be granted the necessary license class he applied for.